A simple exposition of budget reform for the average citizen. "The segregated, classified budget, is the indispensable basis for intelligence in city planning, in applying business principles to government, and in using wisely the initiative, referendum and recall." Four changes needed:

- (1) Changes in the steps of budget-making;
- (2) Changes in the form;
- (3) Changes in the restrictions on post-budget expenditure: budget segregation;
- (4) Changes in the attitude of the general public toward the budget.
